

Weddings
at Camosun

Congratulations on your engagement!

Located in beautiful Victoria, BC, Camosun College offers a combination of unique and memorable indoor and outdoor spaces for wedding ceremonies and receptions.

With two campuses, Camosun has a variety of distinctive spaces from the open-air Na'Tsa'Maht Gathering Place set amongst Lansdowne's landscaped gardens, to the spacious West Coast industrial aesthetic of the CTEI Atrium at the Interurban campus.

In 2022 we added a brand-new venue at our Lansdowne campus that is perfect for weddings. The Hall in the Wilna Thomas Building is an open, airy, bright space connecting to a patio that can be used for your wedding ceremony or as a

Na'Tsa' Maht - The Gathering Place

- Lansdowne Campus

Na'Tsa'Maht is a Salish phrase meaning "unity or working together as one".

The conical and open-sided design of Na'Tsa'Maht was inspired by traditional Coast Salish building styles. Within the circular structure, a gas-powered fire, surrounded by stones, is centered in a broad expanse of floor. Three tiers of wooden benches look in from the sides offering circular seating.
